

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary on their stations days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Though it may be advantageous for Sinclair's bottom-line to suck-up to the President, this partisan programming does not reflect any degree of objective reporting, nor does it allow equal time for opposing views. It is my understanding that law requires equal time. Sinclair's license renewal will be strongly challenged. Thank you.